

Vivace newsletter 23
May 2010

A very Happy Birthday to Kate who has reached 75 years young!

The choir is invited to join her and Bob to celebrate their 150 years on 5th September at Edgeworth House. Put the date in your diary – more details later.

1. John has confirmed we are singing 1,2,5,6,8,9,11,15,16 and 18 of the Love Song Waltzes and movements 1,4 and 7 of the German Requiem.

2. Future Events

- a. Saturday 15th May at 7pm, Edgeworth House: Masa Tayama and Kate play the Tchaikovsky piano concerto (free).
 - b. Sunday 23rd May at 4.00pm: Music at Tea time: Recital by Diana Levitas and Kate (adults £10).
 - c. Sunday 6th June all day: Celebrate Schumann's birthday at Edgeworth House: flyer from Kate with more details.
 - d. Sunday 6th June at 7.30pm: Letchworth Sinfonia Summer Concert at Letchworth Free Church, Norton Way South: adults £10 including refreshments. Tickets from Derek.
 - e. Sunday 6th June 7:30pm – concert at Little Benslow to raise money for the instrument loan scheme, featuring Isla.
3. A message from Karen: When I placed the order for the Brahms Requiem scores, musicroom.com automatically added "The All Time Greatest Million Selling Singles" to the order because it was over a certain amount. The arrangements are for piano/keyboard, guitar and vocal. If anyone is interested in this, please let me know.

Please remember that subs are due now £40 per term. We encourage you to gift aid your subscription; form from Wendy.

Registered charity 1134378

making music

75 YEARS OF SUPPORTING & CHAMPIONING
VOLUNTARY MUSIC